MAY 26 | US TO GERMANY

Today you board your overnight flight to Germany.

MAY 27 | BERLIN | PANORAMIC CITY TOUR

Upon arrival at the Berlin airport you will be met and assisted by your Universal Travel representative. Berlin is an incredible place, originally two 14th century towns (Cölln and Altberein) separated only by the River Spree. It has always been a city of contrasts and never more so than in its recent past, which makes it such a fascinating place to visit. This morning embark on a panoramic city tour incl. Checkpoint Charlie, Brandenburg Gate, Reichstag Dome, Kurfürstendamm, and free time for lunch before you check into your hotel early this afternoon. Tonight meet your fellow travelers and enjoy a welcome to Germany dinner complete with German food, beer, and wine!

MAY 28 | GDR MUSEUM | BERLIN WALL | RIVER CRUISE

A full day of Berlin! First you will visit the East German-GDR Museum, one of the most interactive museums in the world. The museum gives you a chance to experience what everyday life behind the Berlin Wall was like in former East Germany, such as living conditions, the Wall, and the Stasi. This visit is a history lesson like no other, making it one of the top things to do in Berlin. Next you are off to the Berlin Wall, Germany's standing symbol of the Cold War, dividing the country for more than 28 years. The longest remaining stretch has now transformed into the world's longest open-air gallery, the East Side Gallery. This one mile of fascinating images takes a significant era of Germany's history and turns it into a work of art. After some free time for lunch your tour continues with a cruise down the Spree River. Here you will get a completely different perspective of Germany's Capital. Enjoy lovely views of the Reichstag, the Main Train Station, and the TV Tower among many other sites. You return to your hotel with time to relax and an evening at your leisure.

MAY 29 | A FREE DAY IN BERLIN

Today is yours to explore Berlin on your own! Make it a shopping day at the famous department store "The Kaufhaus des Westens." With over 60,000 square meters of retail space, the KA-DE-W is the second largest department store in Europe, after Harrods of London. Within 10 min. walking distance, you reach Kurfürstendamm. This large avenue, colloquially known by the Berliners as "Ku'damm," is the most important shopping area in Berlin. A vast number of shops are strung along the wide boulevard, most of which are international brands. Another option is visiting Museum Island, a unique ensemble of buildings on Spree Island in the heart of Berlin. It encompasses five large Berlin museums, built under the Prussian rulers, as well as a reception and exhibition building, the James Simon Gallery.

Optional Tour - Former Concentration Camp Sachsenhausen:

With sufficient numbers, Universal Travel will offer a visit to the Sachsenhausen Memorial Center, one of the biggest concentration camps on German territory from 1936 to 1945. From 1945 to 1950 the site was used as a special camp by the Soviet secret service.

MAY 30 | WITTENBERG - MARTIN LUTHER | LEIPZIG

This morning after a leisurely breakfast, you board your private motor coach and travel south to the town of Wittenberg for a guided tour of the Luther House. It was here that the Reformer, Martin Luther, lived and worked for over 35 years. Originally built as an Augustinian Monastery, Martin Luther called this home from 1508; first as a monk and then later with his family. This was where he made his "reformatory discovery," gave lectures to students from across Europe, and penned his writings that changed the world. After your tour enjoy free time in Old Town Wittenberg for lunch on your own. You continue your journey southbound and arrive at the University City of Leipzig for a two-night stay. Tonight's dinner will be served at the famous Auerbachs Keller. Like millions of guests before you, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe was here, too. The mentioning of the Fasskeller (barrel cellar) in Goethe's classic work "Faust" makes it arguably the most famous restaurant in Germany. Today the room is exactly as generations of guests before and after Goethe's time knew it.

Overnight: Leipzig

(B,D)

The Opera houses the Saxon State Orchestra, one of the world's oldest and best-known orchestras. After some free time for lunch on your own, you leave town and journey along the Saxon Wine Route. Here you stop at a winery and sample wines while taking in the scenery. In this area you will find many different varieties of wine, including Traminer, Riesling, Müller-Thurgau, Dornfelder, and Pinot Noir. This afternoon unwind with a relaxing steamboat cruise on the River Elbe. Dinner tonight is included.

After breakfast this morning you leave for the Saxon Switzerland region. Together with the Bohemian Switzerland in the Czech Republic it forms the Elbe Sandstone Mountains. It is one of the largest hilltop fortifications in Europe and sits atop the mountain Königstein. After a guided tour of the fortress and an included lunch, your journey continues to the Bastei, one of Germany's most unique landscapes. Giant pinnacles of sandstone rocks tower over the Elbe River and the green countryside. Later this afternoon return back to your hotel for an evening at your leisure.

The bridge straddled the border between East and West Berlin and was used to exchange high-ranking spies between the Eastern and Western powers. After an included lunch you will visit Cecilienhof Palace. It was here that the victorious powers of World War II met for the Potsdam Conference during the summer of 1945.
