

Luxury Tented Camp Safari

Up-close with the Big 5

February 15-26, 2024

Feb 15 & 16 | From home to Nairobi, Kenya

Today begin your trip of a lifetime as you board your overnight flight to Kenya with a connection in Europe. Upon arrival, you will be met by your Universal Travel staff member and assisted with a transfer to your 5-star hotel in Nairobi for a comfortable two night stay. Overnight: Nairobi

Feb 17 | Nairobi - A day in Nairobi

After a leisurely breakfast by the pool, you will visit the Giraffe Centre, which started as a rehabilitation project to rescue the Rothschild Giraffe. Learn about this endangered species and get a close look at the giraffe when you feed this beautiful animal. Next, you'll visit the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust Elephant Nursery in Nairobi National Park. The Nursery provides a safe haven to orphaned baby elephants rescued by the DSWT. After the elephants graduate from the Nursery, they are moved to a Reintegration Center, where they will ultimately return to the wild. Your tour continues to the Karen Blixen Museum and former home of Danish author Karen Blixen, famous for her 1937 book Out of Africa, with an included lunch enroute. Next, stop at a local Beads work shop. See first hand how the women crafting these beautiful Kazuri Beads by hand! (Kazuri translates to "small and beautiful" in Swahili). Return to your hotel and after some free time to freshen up, enjoy a welcome to Kenya dinner.

Feb 18 | The Ark

After breakfast, leave Nairobi behind and pass by pineapple, tea and coffee fields before you arrive at the beautiful Aberdare Country Club for an included lunch. The Club's 1,300 acre wildlife sanctuary is teeming with eland, impalas, zebras, giraffes and the more reclusive leopards. It is a haven of unhurried charm set in a garden, bursting with a profusion of color and with peacocks living within the lush green lawns. From here, enjoy a short drive to The Ark. Very iconic and somewhat quirky, The Ark in Aberdare National Park was built to resemble Noah's creation. It overlooks a floodlit waterhole and salt lick which attracts a wealth of wildlife, especially herds of elephants. There are viewing areas on four different levels as well as a bunker right next to the waterhole where you can watch and photograph the animals so close you can almost touch them, yet remain unseen!

Feb 19 | Nanyuki & Sweetwaters

This morning after a hearty breakfast, you travel a short distance to the town of Nanyuki. Here you visit the Nanyuki Spinners and Weavers, a woman's self-help group, established in 1977. Starting with only 10 members, the organization now has over 200 women and is a highly successful organization. The members collect raw wool from local pastoralists and bring it to their place in Nanyuki. Entirely by hand, the women spin the wool into yarn. It is washed several times before it is dyed with only natural dyes. After it dries, the heavy yarn is woven into rugs of various sizes and patterns, as well as place mats and wall hangings. Finer yarn is made into fine quality beautiful shawls. Your journey continues to the Ol Pejeta Conservancy. Mid-day, check into Serena Sweetwaters Luxury Tented Camp, located within abounding wildlife and designed to offer a charming blend of under canvas ambiance and uncompromising luxury, this camp has long been the preferred retreat of wilderness and safari lovers alike. Get ready this afternoon for your first game drive! On your way back to the camp you will cross the equator - a perfect picture opportunity!

Overnight: Sweetwaters Tented Camp or similar

Feb 20 | Sweetwaters

After breakfast enjoy a morning game drive within the Ol Pejeta Conservancy, home to the world's last remaining northern white rhinos, and a sanctuary for over 110 critically endangered black rhinos. Visit the Morani enclosure, where you meet Baraka the black rhino carrying the ambassador flag for his predecessor. Baraka was born in the wild in Ol Pejeta, but lost sight in both eyes due to a fight and then a cataract. Return back to the camp for lunch and free time to rest. Enjoy an early dinner at the camp before you leave for an exclusive night game drive, an activity not available in most national parks and reserves in Kenya. With the help of a filtered spot light, you might spot some unusual sightings of nocturnal animals, including aardvark, caracal cat, bat eared fox, and perhaps even a leopard.

Overnight: Sweetwaters Tented Camp or similar

Feb 21 | Sweetwaters to Buffalo Springs Game Reserve

This morning, after a leisurely breakfast your journey continues to Samburu. You arrive in time for lunch, at the Ashnill Luxury Tented Camp. Located in the Buffalo Springs Game Reserve, this luxury tented camp is home to some rare northern wildlife including the Long Necked Gerenuk, Beisa Oryx, Reticulated Giraffe, Grevy Zebra, Somali Ostrich and an abundance of bird species, all flocking here because of the springs, which provide permanent drinking water. Enjoy an afternoon game drive in the reserve before returning to the camp for dinner and overnight.

Feb 22 | Buffalo Springs Game Reserve/ Samburu

Bright and early this morning, depart for a game drive as the wildlife viewing will be at its prime. Upon your return to the camp, enjoy breakfast and some free time, before you visit a Samburu Village. The Samburu Tribe, like the Masai, are nomadic pastoralists, moving from one place to another following patterns of rainfall in search of fresh pasture and water for their livestock. The Samburu are easily identified as they wear bright and colorful attire, beaded necklaces, and jewelry. You will be allowed to enter a Samburu hut and learn how they survive in this desert like land. Be ready with your cameras as Samburu Warriors dance to the rhythmic chanting. Return to the camp in time for lunch. You'll have some free time to relax on your porch before heading out again for a late afternoon game drive.

Later this morning after breakfast, transfer to the local airstrip with a short game drive en-route. You'll fly over the Great Rift Valley and onto the unspoiled Savannah of the Maasai Mara Game Reserve. Upon arrival at the Mara Safari Club's private airstrip, you will be greeted by your driver/guides and transferred to the nearby Mara Safari Club for a two night stay. With an attractive setting surrounded on three sides by the Mara River and on the edge of one of the "New Wonders of the World"- the Masai Mara is an Eden of stunning vistas and fruitful game viewing. Game drives set out in the cool of the mornings before the dew is dry on the grass, and again late in the afternoons when the sun drops low on the horizon. You might hunt alongside big cats on the prowl, admire a stately parade of magnificent elephant families led by old matriarchs with young calves trailing behind, or gaze upon ladylike giraffes, long-legged and long-lashed, as they nibble the crown of acacia trees. Grin as cheetah cubs frolic joyfully around your vehicle, and laugh aloud at lumbering hippos as they chortle and snort in the winding rivers.

This morning you wake up to a lifetime sunrise game drive, with a great chance of spotting predators on a hunt. The Maasai Mara has been called the Kingdom of Lions and these magnificent, black-maned, powerful hunters dominate these grasslands. You return back to your camp for a late breakfast. There is time to relax in your luxuriously furnished tent, featuring four-poster beds, en-suite facilities, and a private deck overlooking the hippo filled Mara River! These fascinating creatures chortle and splash in the water, interacting with each other while keeping a respectable distance between them and the families of crocodiles lining the banks. Late this afternoon, your 4x4 vehicle awaits to take you out on safari one more time! Often called the Jewel of Africa, the Maasai Mara takes its name from the Maasai tribe who have inhabited these lands since the 17th century. Mara translates to spotted, referencing the scattered acacia trees that mark the landscapes, and that have become the symbol of the Maasai Mara. Its wide open plains provide an oasis-like sanctuary for an abundance of wildlife.

After a leisurely breakfast you will be transferred to the Mara Safari Club airstrip. Take a last look at the Mara as you fly back to Nairobi and check into your day room. Here you have time to repack and freshen up before you are transferred to the airport for your overnight flight home. A late lunch is included at the hotels restaurant prior to your airport transfer.
